

3. Money can't buy the pieces up for exhibition at Newcomb Art Gallery, but the gallery a great place to shop for ideas, especially with this must-have art book featuring 200 color plates, archival photographs and scholarly essays. Tulane University, 865-5328, NewcombArtGallery.tulane.edu 4. From Rivers Spencer Interiors comes this custom waterfall console with a gold-leaf high gloss finish, a perfect piece for electronics or decorations. The console is also available in custom sizes and finishes. Rivers Spencer Interiors, 4610 Magazine St., 609-2436, RiversSpencer.com 5. Perch. in the Garden District is sure to have what you're looking for with a unique and varied collection of art, furniture, textiles and more. This Christian Lacroix fabric, shown here on a chaise, is a great place to start if you're looking to revisit color and space, with a chic feel and beautiful hues, and is also available in wallpaper. perch, 2844 Magazine St., 899-2122, perch-home.com 6. New Orleans Auction Galleries is a well-known staple of the art scene in the South, and this iconic Blue Dog painting by the late great George Rodrigue is no exception. Painted in 1996, "That's Amore" measures 24-inches-by-18-inches and is oil on canvas. New Orleans Auction Galleries, 510 Julia St., 566-1849, NewOrleansAuction.com