

4. Waldhorn & Adler has offered sophisticated pieces, like this vintage English George III sideboard, since 1881. This side table measures 37 inches in height with a width of 75 inches, but the timeless beauty of its polished mahogany wood is sure to be a focal point of any room. Waldhorn & Adler, 343 Royal St., 581-6379, WaldhornAdlers.com 5. Rivers Spencer Interiors mixes traditional style with current brands to create completely irreplaceable pieces. As the only outlet in New Orleans to feature Amy Howard Home, this white lacquered Anna chest from her collection is already special, and the gilt pulls simply tie the look together. Rivers Spencer Interiors, 4601 Magazine St., 609-2436, RiversSpencer.com 6. M.S. Rau Antiques is the French Quarter home to an extensive collection of 18th and 19th century pieces, and this sterling silver Tiffany & Co. lamp, with an 1879 letter of authenticity, is no exception. The base of the 27 inch lamp, adorned in the luxurious "Chrysanthemum" pattern, once served as a water cooler until the company renewed this rare piece into the stylish lighting feature it is today. M.S. Rau Antiques, 630 Royal St., 523-5660, RauAntiques.com 7. Interesting home accessories and one-of-a-kind gifts can be found at the self-described "lifestyle boutique" Cole + Company. One piece that fits both descriptions is this "X" bar cart wrapped in gold leaf and featuring mirrored shelves that elongate its appearance. Use this cart to entertain all year round, but don't miss out on the opportunity to wow guests during the upcoming holiday season. Cole + Company, 2013 Metairie Road, 941-7001, ShopColeAndCo.com